

Press Release ProWine Shanghai / 23 November 2022

ProWine Shanghai 2022 postponed to 2023

In face of the sporadic and frequent cases of COVID-19 outbreaks, following Shanghai's epidemic prevention policy, regulations on exhibitions' epidemic prevention and control, and in order to effectively protect the health and safety of exhibitors, visitors and partners, and ensure better exhibition effect, it was prudently decided that ProWine Shanghai 2022 will be postponed to 08-10 November, 2023. With the Shanghai New International Expo Center (SNIEC) the venue remains unchanged.

This is a tough and sensible decision after a comprehensive consideration of various factors. The ProWine Shanghai team is in close communication with relevant departments and all partners involved. One will strive to create the best and most professional environment for exhibiting as well as visiting, to create a great event and win wide acclaim from all participators.

The safety and health of all partners, exhibitors and visitors is always a top priority, and the organizers will also strive to maximise the interests of all parties. ProWine Shanghai is actively building more relevant trading platforms and schemes for the Chinese market.
